No new news here, we too are noticing unprecedented times due to the recent drop in the economy. We are outstanding in beverage product development and appreciate your support. Our partnership with you is vital and we assure you that we are dedicated to our commitments and responsibilities.

As one of our top vendors you are essential to our team and we depend on you. Thank you for your great service. Our partnership with you will continue the win-win for us both. We appreciate your service and patience as we weather this storm together.

Sincerely,
